

Rules for record attempt

The attempt to break the record has to happen on 16 January.

Registration for a record attempt must be no later than 5 January 2018.

The people should all come together in one place (inside or outside).

The participants should all drink Rooibos tea together (warm or cold).

It has to be at least 125ml of Rooibos tea per person.

Photographs and video should be made available to the organisers of Rooibos Day, for publishing on social media and the web page.

All record attempts that adhere to these requirements, will be shared on social media and the website.

An auditor or lawyer's letter has to verify on paper the amount of participants, as well as the adherence to the requirements of the record attempt.

Results, a lawyer's letter, photos and videos of the record attempt should be submitted electronically not later than 18 January 2018 at 12:00.

The final result will be announced on 19 January 2018 at 10:00.

The organisers are authorised to reject a record attempt result if the participants did not adhere to the rules.

The decision of the organisers are final and they will not enter into any correspondence concerning any decisions made.

Record attempts will be shared on the webpage and social for free. Do send us the information about your attempt to better the record.
